Election Inspectors Needed

One day only!

Our elections process is the cornerstone of democracy. Always exercise your right to vote, and please also consider becoming a precinct inspector. It's a great way to serve your community and state.

The Grosse Pointe Woods City Clerk's office is looking for qualified residents of Wayne County to help manage voting precincts on Election Day.

The election inspector's job is critical to ensuring a fair and efficient elections process. He or she performs duties such as issuing ballots, maintaining precinct records, and lending support to residents during the voting process.

To be considered for an appointment as an election inspector, an interested person must:

- Be a registered voter of Wayne County.
- Be at least 16 years old. (The voter registration requirement is waived for inspectors under 18.)
- Be willing to declare a political party preference so that a balanced election board is ensured.
- Attend paid election-worker training session.

Compensation for Election Day is $135 - $165.

You can apply by visiting the City Clerk's office or by downloading the following application.
