Applicants and staff in the recovery center will be required to comply with federal guidelines for mask usage when interacting with federal employees. Any individual inside a recovery center must wear a face mask which covers the individual's nose and mouth, as per CDC guidance.

At a Disaster Recovery Center, you can . . .

- Register for FEMA assistance by using phone banks at the center
- Check the status of your application
- Meet with a FEMA applicant assistance representative
- Obtain information from state agencies and voluntary organizations
- Discuss U.S. Small Business Administration's (SBA) low-interest disaster loans for businesses, non-profit organizations, homeowners and renters and receive help inputting your application or documents
- Obtain information about additional resources available and how to reduce future damage

All FEMA disaster assistance will be provided without discrimination on the grounds of race, color, sex (including sexual harassment), religion, national origin, age, disability, limited English proficiency, economic status, or retaliation. If you believe your civil rights are being violated, call 800-621-3362 or 800-462-7585(TTY/TDD).
