COUNCIL MEETING REPORT:

The Council will address the proposed Family Bike Tour at a future meeting. The issue of charging a fee for the use of the platform tennis courts will be referred to the Committee of the Whole.

BUSINESS AND REPORTS:

Perch Derby—June 20, 2009:

M. Sharp will obtain hot dogs, buns, paper products. T-shirts have been obtained.
Potato chips will be provided by Bill Matouk at Woods Wholesale Wines;

Non-Profit Organization use of Lakefront Park—Pregnancy Aid requested to use Lakefront Park for a fund raising walk in September. A representative of Pregnancy Aid was scheduled to appear at the Commission meeting to provide details regarding the walk. The representative did not appear and the issue was tabled.

Family Bike Tour—The Commission discussed the possibility of including roller bladers at the Family Bike Tour. The Commission rejected the idea as inconsistent with the purpose of the Bike Tour. The purpose of the Tour is to promote safe bicycling and to provide participants the opportunity to experience each of our city parks

NEW BUSINESS:

The Mason School PTO contacted Councilmember Granger regarding the possibility of renting the Lakefront Park pool for a school picnic. The Commission agreed to place this question on the agenda in the Fall.
